

INSURANCE ACT 1973

(PART III DIVISION 3A)

SCHEME FOR THE TRANSFER OF THE INSURANCE BUSINESS OF AUSTRALIAN ASSOCIATED MOTOR INSURERS LIMITED TO AAI LIMITED

Background

- A. Australian Associated Motor Insurers Limited (ACN 004 791 744) (AAMI) and AAI Limited (ACN 005 297 807) (AAI) are authorised under the Insurance Act to carry on insurance business in Australia.
- B. This Scheme has been prepared under Part III Division 3A of the Insurance Act to give effect to the terms of an agreement by which AAMI has agreed to sell and transfer, and AAI has agreed to purchase and accept the transfer of, all of the Business carried on by AAMI. In particular, AAMI has agreed to transfer and AAI has agreed to accept and assume all of the Insurance Contracts, the Insurance Liabilities, the Business Assets and the Business Liabilities.
- C. An Actuarial Report has been prepared in connection with the Scheme.

1. Definitions and Interpretation

1.1 Definitions

In this Scheme, unless the context requires otherwise:

Actuarial Report means the report dated 25 March 2013 prepared by Tim Andrews, fellow of the Institute of Actuaries of Australia, in connection with the Scheme.

APRA means the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority.

Business means the insurance business carried on by AAMI in Australia within the meaning of the Insurance Act, including the Insurance Contracts, the Insurance Liabilities, the Business Assets and the Business Liabilities, but not including the Excluded Business Assets and the Excluded Business Liabilities.

Business Assets means the assets of AAMI used for the purposes of conducting the Business including the Reinsurance Contracts, Sharing Agreements, contracts relating to the Business (including with distributors, authorised representatives, intermediaries, information technology or software providers, suppliers or otherwise), certain business names and intellectual property, relevant licences, business records, goodwill, plant and equipment and receivables, as described in the Transfer Agreement but excluding the Insurance Contracts and the Excluded Business Assets.

Business Liabilities means Claims, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses of any kind of the Business, which have arisen and remain unsatisfied or which may arise in the future or which are prospective or contingent and whether or not the amount of the liability is ascertained or ascertainable other than the Insurance Liabilities and the Excluded Business Liabilities.

Claim means, in relation to any person, a claim, action, proceeding, judgment, damage, loss, cost, expense or liability incurred by or to or made or recovered by or against the person, however arising and whether present, future or contingent, whether ascertained or unascertained and whether arising before or after the Effective Date.

Effective Date means 12.01am on 1 July 2013 or such other date that the Federal Court of Australia may specify as the commencement date of the Scheme should the Scheme be confirmed by the Court.

Excluded Business Assets means:

- (a) any leases and any investment assets relating to those leases;
- (b) any contracts with current or former employees, contractors, consultants or agency personnel and any investment assets relating to those contracts;
- (c) assets required to be retained by AAMI in order to meet its minimum capital requirements;
- (d) business records which AAMI is required by law, or by a binding obligation to a third party, to retain;
- (e) certain investments in controlled entities and intercompany accounts, as described in the Transfer Agreement or otherwise identified by AAMI; and
- (f) other assets that AAMI identifies as being unrelated to its general insurance business, or that should not be transferred to AAI.

Excluded Business Liabilities means Claims, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses of any kind that are identified by AAMI as relating to any Excluded Business Asset or being otherwise unrelated to AAMI's general insurance business, including but not limited to certain intercompany loans, as described in the Transfer Agreement or otherwise identified by AAMI.

Insurance Act means the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth).

Insurance Contracts means all right, title and benefit including any entitlement to receive or recover any money or property (insurance receivable) under or in relation to:

- (a) all contracts of insurance or reinsurance issued, entered into or assumed by AAMI as insurer or reinsurer prior to the Effective Date;
- (b) any agreement to insure or reinsure issued, entered into or assumed by AAMI prior to the Effective Date where the insurance or reinsurance is to commence or does commence on or after the Effective Date; and
- (c) any Post-Effective Date Insurance Contract, in the conduct of its Business.

Insurance Liabilities means claims, losses, liabilities, costs or expenses of any kind under the Insurance Contracts, which have arisen and remain unsatisfied or which may arise in the future or which are prospective or contingent and whether or not the amount of the liability is ascertained or ascertainable and includes any insurance liability described in APRA Prudential Standard GPS 320 Actuarial and Related Matters.

Post-Effective Date Insurance Contract means any contract of insurance or reinsurance inadvertently or mistakenly issued or entered into by or on behalf of AAMI as insurer or reinsurer in the 3 months after the Effective Date.

Reinsurance Contract means any reinsurance or retrocession entered into or assumed by AAMI as reinsured in respect of any Insurance Contract to be transferred under this Scheme, except any contract where AAI is the reinsurer.

Sharing Agreement means any agreement with other insurers in respect of the sharing of claims or any costs associated with them.

Transfer Agreement means the Transfer Agreement dated 22 March 2013 between Suncorp Metway Insurance Limited, GIO General Limited, Australian Alliance Insurance Company Limited and AAMI (together the Transferors) and AAI for the sale and transfer of the Transferors' insurance businesses to AAI.

Transfer Value means an amount equal to the net book value of all assets and liabilities directly related to AAMI's general insurance business for the period ending 30 June 2013 as contained in the balance sheet for AAMI on that date and in accordance with the Transfer Agreement.

1.2 Interpretation

Headings are for convenience only and do not affect interpretation. The following rules apply in this Scheme unless the context requires otherwise:

- (a) The singular includes the plural and conversely.
- (b) If a word or phrase is defined, its other grammatical forms have a corresponding meaning.
- (c) A reference to a person, corporation, trust, partnership, unincorporated body or other entity includes any of them.
- (d) A reference to a clause or schedule is a reference to a clause of or a schedule to, this Scheme.
- (e) A reference to an agreement or document (including, without limitation, a reference to this Agreement) is to the agreement or document as amended, varied, supplemented, novated or replaced except to the extent prohibited by this Scheme or that other agreement or document.
- (f) A reference to legislation or to a provision of legislation includes a modification or re-enactment of it, a legislative provision substituted for it and a regulation or statutory instrument issued under it.

2. Transfer of Business

On the Effective Date, AAMI agrees to sell and transfer and AAI agrees to purchase and accept the transfer of all of the Business and, in particular:

- (a) the Insurance Contracts and the Insurance Liabilities; and
- (b) the Business Assets and the Business Liabilities, from AAMI in accordance with the terms of the Transfer Agreement, including all right, title, interest, benefit and powers that have arisen, or may in the future arise under any of the above.

3. Consideration for the transfer of the Business

In consideration of the transfer of the Business to AAI, AAI agrees to:

- (a) assume the Business Liabilities and the Insurance Liabilities; and
- (b) pay to AAMI an amount equal to the Transfer Value.

4. Transfer of Liability

- (a) On and from the Effective Date AAMI transfers to AAI and AAI accepts the transfer of the Insurance Contracts and the Insurance Liabilities, and AAI assumes and takes over and must indemnify and keep AAMI indemnified from and against all Claims under or in connection with the Insurance Contracts or Insurance Liabilities.
- (b) In the case of any Post-Effective Date Insurance Contracts, the transfer of those contracts to and the assumption of liabilities under those contracts by AAI will take effect on and from the date on which the Post-Effective Date Insurance Contract is issued or entered into by AAMI.

5. Transfer of Business Assets

On and from the Effective Date, AAI is beneficially entitled to the benefit of the Business Assets and AAI assumes responsibility for the Business Assets and shall indemnify and keep AAMI indemnified from and against all Claims under or in connection with the Business Assets in accordance with the terms of the Transfer Agreement.

6. Proceedings

If any proceedings are pending or any proceedings are brought on or after the Effective Date by or against AAMI in any court or tribunal in respect of the Insurance Contracts, the Insurance Liabilities, the Business Assets or the Business Liabilities, AAI and AAMI shall determine whether such proceedings will be continued:

- (a) by or against AAI, in which case the parties agree to take all necessary action to effect a change of the name of the party in those proceedings from AAMI to AAI; or
- (b) by or against AAMI for and on behalf of AAI, in which case any judgment or determination for or against AAMI in any such proceedings will have effect as between AAMI and AAI as if such judgment or determination had been made for or against AAI and AAI will indemnify and keep AAMI indemnified accordingly.

7. Effective Date

The sale and purchase of the Business from AAMI to AAI, and the transfer to and assumption of the Insurance Contracts and Insurance Liabilities by AAI pursuant to this Scheme take effect on and from the Effective Date (or in the case of any Post-Effective Date Insurance Contract, on the date that it is issued by AAMI) such that AAI will be entitled to all benefits and rights in respect of the Insurance Contracts and Business Assets, and will assume all of the obligations in respect of the Insurance Liabilities and Business Liabilities as from and including that date.

8. Implementation

AAMI and AAI will do all such things and execute all such deeds, instruments, transfers or other documents as may be necessary or desirable to give full effect to the provisions of the Transfer Agreement, this Scheme, the Actuarial Report and the transactions contemplated by them.

9. Costs of the Scheme

Any stamp duty and other costs and expenses incurred in connection with the Scheme will not be paid by or charged to policyholders, but will be met by AAI out of shareholder funds.

10. Rights and Obligations of Insureds

- (a) The Scheme will not change the terms of any Insurance Contract, or affect any claim in respect of any Insurance Contract, issued by AAMI other than that AAI will become the insurer in place of AAMI.
- (b) Policyholders will continue to have the same rights and obligations under or in respect of any Insurance Contract or claim but with AAI as the insurer. The Scheme and Transfer Agreement will also reflect the change in insurer as follows:
 - (i) all outstanding claims-related rights and liabilities of AAMI in respect of the Insurance Contracts will be transferred to AAI such that any claims arising under or in connection with any Insurance Contract underwritten by AAMI must be made against AAI;
 - (ii) all premiums and other amounts payable to or recoverable by AAMI under the Insurance Contracts will be payable to and recoverable by AAI instead of AAMI;
 - (iii) AAI will be entitled to enforce all rights and remedies which but for the Scheme would have been enforceable by AAMI under or in respect of the Insurance Contracts (including but not limited to any claims by way of subrogation, contribution, outstanding premium and any other recoveries related directly or indirectly to any Insurance Contracts); and

- (iv) any policyholder under an Insurance Contract or other person who has a claim on or obligation to AAMI under or in respect of an Insurance Contract will have the same claim on or obligation to AAI in substitution for his or her claim on or obligation to AAMI irrespective of when such claim or obligation arose.
- (c) Policyholders are not required to take any action before or as a result of the Scheme.
- (d) In the event of any inconsistency between this clause 10 and any other provision of this Scheme or the Transfer Agreement, the other provision shall prevail to the extent of the inconsistency.
